

COMMUNICATION SECRETARY'S REPORT

March 12, 2011

Communications flow when the person sending the information is doing her job. I apologize for our Bulletin being late this week. I sent it out quickly on Monday morning at 8:30, BUT I sent it out to myself only. It wasn't until Tuesday that someone asked about the Bulletin and was I OK. They had not received it! My head was not in OA. Maybe I thought it was Christmas. I love giving myself a present at Christmas☺. Whatever the situation, I regret the tardiness of information to all of you. And will be more careful this week.

I read an incredible phrase this week,

“Life isn't about waiting for the storm to pass; it's about learning to dance in the rain.”

In loving service,
Prue O.
